OTHER TERMS & CONDITIONS

20. Transporter must be able to provide requisite number of trucks for dispatch of packed onion from NCCF Onion godowns at NASIK, AHMEDNAGAR, PUNE, AURANGABAD, SOLAPUR & DHULE DISTRICTS to various destinations as given in the tender document within 24 hrs of requisition by NCCF. While sending the truck to consignor, transporter will send confirmation slip mentioning the particulars of Truck & Driver for respective trucks. In case of failure by the transporter to provide requisite number of trucks, NCCF will hire trucks from open market at the market rate and the transporter shall have to bear the difference in market rate and contractual rate.
21. The transporter will not load / transport any goods of any party other than NCCF's stock of onion in the same truck.
22. Once the onion stock is delivered to the driver and Delivery challan is issued, it will be the responsibility of the transporter to transport the stock to given destination within 4 days from the day of dispatch and deliver the same in good condition. In case of Far east destinations or distant locations like Guwahati etc the transit time can be 6-7 days, depending upon the distance. In case of delay in delivery of Onion stock at destination without any valid justification, NCCF will charge penalty @ 10 % of freight amount per day. The justification will be deemed to be valid only if NCCF is informed of delay within 24 hours of such delay.
23. Transit loss to the extent of 0.5 % of the quantity at the time of dispatch will be allowed. Value for transit loss exceeding 0.5% will be recovered from the transporter on actual cost basis, at the time of releasing freight payment.
24. NCCF shall not be held responsible for hike in the cost of diesel, petrol, tyres, tax octroi etc., by Government of India / State Government etc. during the agreement period. In such cases the transporter is liable to carry out the work as per the rates approved by NCCF. Hence, once the tender is submitted the same will be treated as final and no alterations shall be accepted.
25. If the consignment is delivered short of the destination or at some other destination, less otherwise permitted by NCCF in writing NCCF will not pay the freight charges to the transporter.

26. The payment would be made to the contractor after the delivery of the goods (Onion) at the destination and after submitting the bill along with the acknowledgement / receipts of the goods (Onion quantity to be mentioned) at the concerned destination in sound condition and within the permissible transit shortage. The bills shall be submitted to NCCF Nashik (subject to TDS and other statutory deductions as applicable) will be released by NCCF within 30 days of receipt of bills. The TDS certificate would be issued at the end of the financial year by the NCCF.
27. Payment will be made by account payee cheque or through RTGS in favour of the transporter by the NCCF Nashik on the basis of the actual gross weight of the onion stated in the delivery challan and weighment slip at the time of loading on production of the certificate of receipt of the goods from the consignee. The cost on account of shortage in the consignment, penalty for the late delivery of the consignment and value of damages to the consignment and value of transit loss above the permissible limit will be deducted by NCCF before making payment to the transporter.
28. The transporter shall ensure that (a) Hooks are not used for handling the bags (b) the trucks are covered with double tarpaulins which are perfectly water proof, leak proof and in sound conditions to avoid damage by rain etc. (c) the consignment is never exposed or kept open and (d) the entire transportation is made only by road and not by any other mode of transportation.
29. In the event of losses & damages of onion in transit from the point of its loading till it is safely delivered at given destination, the transporter shall be responsible for all the losses and damages and cost of same will be recovered from transporter from the amount of bill, EMD and Bank Guarantee. Transit Insurance Policy for onion stock value to be taken by Transporter as per the rate communicated by NCCF from time to time. It shall be incumbent upon the transporter to make the transit of the goods in compliance to the transit insurance policy taken by them and any violation of the policy terms and rejection of the claim, if any by the insurance company in the event claim is made by Transporter against the Transit Insurance Policy, the transporter shall solely be responsible for any loss occurred to NCCF and will be recovered from the bill, EMD and security deposit of the transporter.
30. No transshipment is allowed in between the destinations. For any reason such as breakdown accident etc. if the work is stranded beyond reasonable limits, the transporter should make alternative arrangements for safe transportation of the goods by road within the prescribed delivery time limit. Except the extraordinary justifiable situation such as accident, break down, road blockage etc , no transshipment is allowed i.e. the truck received by the consignee should be the same as that into which the stock was loaded by the consignor as indicated in the Delivery challan /Truck Bilty /consignment note. If and when transshipment is resorted to and the truck No. is changed, the transporter shall justify the same to NCCF's satisfaction. For delay/damage on account of transshipment not accepted by NCCF penalty shall be twice the penalty prescribed for normal delay/damage. Transshipment in event of extra-ordinary justifiable conditions may be covered in the insurance policy.
31. In case of any eventuality like theft/breakdown of truck/accident occurs while in transit, the same should be brought to the notice of NCCF-Nashik or concerned Branch also FIR is to be lodged immediately at the nearest Police Station.

32. This agreement does not confer any right on the transporter to demand that the entire work should necessarily or exclusively be entrusted to him. NCCF reserves the right to appoint one or more transporters and distribute the work among them during the currency of this agreement and no claim for compensation shall be against NCCF on account of such division of work. No transporter can demand division of work but NCCF may empanel/award more than one transporter on L-1 rates so that the movement of Onion is not hampered due to non-availability of trucks.
33. The transporter will be entirely responsible for obtaining the GST – e way bill form etc. (if any) wherever necessary such as for inter-state entry free passage etc, failure to obtain these forms from consignor and the resultant delay will be entirely at the risk of the transporter and NCCF will not be liable to pay any charge on account of detention of trucks for want of any permit/clearance.
34. Transporter shall not withhold the delivery of the consignment for any reason whatsoever and shall be solely responsible for any loss that NCCF may sustain on account of such non delivery. In the event of non -delivery of the consignment at the destination the transporter shall bear the entire actual cost of the packed onion stock in full.
35. No endorsement shall be made on the Delivery Challan /Bilty / Consignment note to the effect that the consignment is carried at the owner's risk and it should be on Carrier's risk only.
36. The agreement to which these terms and conditions form a part shall be in force till the job for which the transporter has been engaged is completed to the entire satisfaction of NCCF and this can be extended further on mutual consent in writing.
37. In case the performance of the transporter is not found to be satisfactory during the currency of the agreement, NCCF can prematurely terminate the agreement after giving 10 days notice.
38. Transporter will also submit the copy of PF Deposit Challan in respect of their Driver and Assistants along with the transportation bill. However, in case the Transporter is not covered under PF Rules, he will give an undertaking in this regard.
39. Transporter will ensure the trucks are fully insured to the value of stock, vehicle and Driver and Assistant are fully insured and the responsibility for such personnel's will be fully of the transporter.
40. Loading charges at the origin during dispatch and unloading charges at destination during delivery, if any, shall be borne by the transporter and covered in the quoted rates. The loading and unloading charges to be paid should be clearly mentioned in the quotation.
41. In case any vehicle carrying and illegal / hazardous goods along with the Onion Stock of NCCF, the responsibility of any legal / criminal / and financial loss will be the responsibility of the concerned Transport agency empanelled with NCCF. Any quality deterioration / losses incurred to the stored Onion, the cost of the Onion will be recovered from the Transport Agency.

42. DURATION, APPLICABLE LAW & JURISDICTION

The agreement between NCCF and the transporter shall be valid for a period of Twelve months from the date of execution.

- (a) "This tender document shall be dealt in accordance to the Law of Republic of India and subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of courts at Mumbai, in the event any dispute between the parties exclusively pertaining to the tender process arise during the course of this process".
- b) All or any dispute arising out or touching upon or in relation to the terms of this tender document including the interpretation and validity of the terms thereof and the respective rights and obligations of the parties shall be settled amicably by mutual discussion failing which the same shall be settled through arbitration. The arbitration proceedings shall be governed by the Arbitration and Conciliation Act of 1966 (as amended up to the date) or any statutory amendments/modifications thereof for the time being in the force. The venue & seat of the arbitration shall be at New Delhi India and language of arbitration shall be English.

43. HOLIDAY LISTING AND INTEGRITY

- (i) NCCF has adopted ethics of highest standard and a very high degree of integrity, transparency, commitments and sincerity towards the work undertaken. While participating in the tender and performing under a Contract/Order, the Agencies are required to meet certain standard of integrity and adherence to the terms and conditions of the tender/contract. In case Transporter fails to meet the standard benchmark of integrity, it is prudent to put the Transporter on holiday/banning list for specific periods in order to deter the Agencies from committing such defaults.
- (ii) Notwithstanding anything contained in this bid documents, NCCF's policy for Holiday- Listing of an Agency mutatis mutandis applies to this agreement and in the event, the agency(s) while discharging its obligations under the Agreement or otherwise, come(s) within the ambit of the said policy, NCCF's at its sole discretion reserves the right to suspend/discontinue dealings or take any curative measures with agency (s) in accordance with the policy in force.
